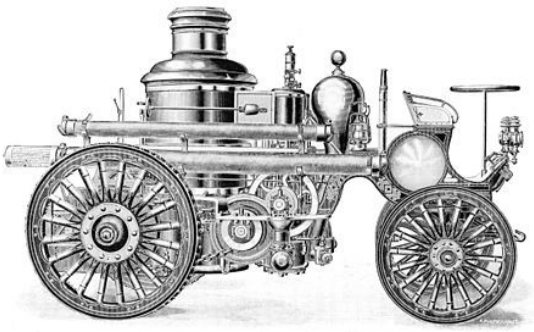
VIRTUAL OUTREACH PROGRAMS



Although there is no substitute for visiting the Fire Museum and seeing our awesome collection in person, if you cannot come to us, we are happy to come to you! Here are the outreach programs currently offered by the Fire Museum:

The Great Baltimore Fire of 1904 & the People Who Remembered It: as seen through the eyes of the people who lived through it. Includes historical information from diaries, newspapers and other archival materials, photographs, paintings, and other artwork that was used to document this catastrophic event.

"Isn't That Lady Liberty?": a decorative arts look at the paintings, carvings, and castings of the Fire Museum of Maryland's collections and how they relate to changing fashions of the fire service and society.

Plug Uglies and Fire Plugs: How the violent politics of the 1850s brought an end to volunteer fire companies in Baltimore City.

Baltimore Builders: Did you know Baltimore had more fire engine manufacturers than any other city from 1823 to 1964? This program explores the importance of Baltimore as a fire engine manufacturing hub.
